A Quarterly Publication of The Arc of San Diego Winter 2009

Kids Singing For A Cause

The youth theatre company, ACT - San Diego (Actors' Conservatory Theatre) held two Showcase Performances benefiting The Arc of San Diego on December 7-8 in the Sherwood Auditorium at the Museum of Contemporary Art. This opportunity was made possible by long-time Arc supporter Barbara Maisel.

The benefit featured some of San Diego's most talented youth performing melodies from popular Broadway musicals, performed in groups, duets, and solos. The event raised $2,500 which was designated to the Building Toward Self-Sufficiency capital campaign. The Arc is grateful to the producers, directors, and performers of ACT - San Diego their generous support.
